Dear Students,

India just entered into 71 years of Independence and our pledge to make motherland safe, secure and progressive stands tall on broad shoulders of today's youth. We nation of more than a billion celebrate festival of democracy and development to realise India, place in comity of nations, Vishwa Guru.

Goa is known for its culture, tradition, festivals and forth coming Ganesh Chaturthi, Bakri-id, Onam, Dussehra, Dewali will bring blessings and epitome of cultural harmony and prosperity. Each and every festival is celebrated with the knowledge of elder people and enthusiasm of youth. It is you people, who labour hard in organising such festivals. You get more and more enjoyment and happiness. Your creativity comes out and that itself satisfies you. To enhance your enthusiasm do not indulge in any unconventional practices.

I hope you all will participate in festivals with enthusiasm.

I wish all very best for your academic session ahead.

JAI HIND
