

Currently there are 4 seats vacant in the General Category. These seats will be filled according to the merit order of candidates who are eligible for admission and who have not already taken admission from the General list.

The following candidates are expected to report to the department office on Tue 28th July 2015 at 10:00 AM. A register will be kept in the department office for these candidates to register their names. At 11:00 AM the register will be taken off and admission will be offered to the candidate present in the department in the order of merit. If General Category seats fall vacant, seats will be offered to candidates from the outside category.
