

Celebrating the Spirit of Francophony at Goa University

The Department of French and Francophone studies at Goa University organized Francophony Celebrations from 26th to 28th March 2018.

On 26th March, students were treated to a film screening. “Demain” is a French documentary about concrete solutions to environmental and societal challenges of the 21st century.

On 27th March, students participated in a Quiz on Francophony and the French language.

The Grand finale on 28th March was a French Treasure hunt followed by a “Goûter Français- crêpes et gateaux.” Students relished the traditional French pancakes and chocolate cake dished up by the French Tutor, Gregory Stachowiak. Attractive prizes were sponsored by Alliance Française, Panjim and Institut Français en Inde.
