

Congratulations...

The CTUG (Companhia de Teatro da Universidade de Goa) comprising of faculty and students of the Department of Portuguese & Lusophone Studies of Goa University performed "Auto da India", a 16th century work of Gil Vicente recently at the Midas Trophy 2018, a one act play competition for English and foreign languages held in Pune and won the prizes for Best Music and Best Costume.

The play was directed by Prof. Delfim da Correia Silva, Visiting Faculty, Dept. of Portuguese & Lusophone Studies.

The following were the cast:

1. Asst. Prof. Scarlet Fernandes (Ama)
2. Saadia Furtado (Moça)
3. Himanshu Jindal (Lemos)
4. Sunit Tripathi (Castelhana)
5. Vernon Lobo (Marido)

They were supported by:

1. Asst. Prof. Loraine Alberto (Costume & make-up)
2. Jeanette Barbosa Noronha (Stage setup & prompter)
3. Chandramani Kumar (Sound & lights)
4. Asst. Prof. Franz Schubert Cotta (Music & sound effects)

To visit photo archive, click here