

'Training and Capacity Building Programme' on 'Legal and Psychological aspects related to Domestic Violence'

State Resource Centre for Women, Department of Women's Studies, Goa University, had organised a 'Training and Capacity Building Programme' on 'Legal and Psychological aspects related to Domestic Violence' for 181 helpline counsellors of GVK EMRI, at GMC, Bambolim-Goa, on 29 May 2019.

Adv. Caroline Collasso (Lawyer and Goa Representative of the Human Rights Law Network) and Mrs. Olga Netto (Psychologist) were the resource persons for the training programme which aimed at introducing the Protection of Women from Domestic violence Act (2005) to the participants, to discuss its scope, procedure and reliefs/ redressal mechanism. To raise awareness about the socio-psychological aspects of domestic violence and the relevant psychotherapies to assist Women in distress (WID). Also, to enable the 181 counsellors to solve and develop appropriate strategies while assisting the WID either telephonically or through on-site visits.
