

Bharti Ramchandani: One more language on her tongue

Ms. Bharti Ramchandani, a student pursuing her studies for M.A. in Portuguese (Part II) in the Department of Portuguese and Lusophone Studies, Goa University, was a recipient of a grant awarded by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, Government of Italy (MAECI) for a visit to Italy for a duration of 3 months. This grant is offered by the Italian Government to the citizens living abroad.

At the Università per Stranieri di Perugia, (University for Foreigners of Perugia) she had an opportunity to pursue C1 Level programme in the Italian language using this grant. No wonder, she excelled in her studies there! She was conferred with Certificato di Conscenza della Lingua e Cultura Italiana (Certificate of Knowledge of Italian Language and Culture).

Bentornato Bharati! Hats off to you for being a multilingual person.
