

DEPARTMENT OF WOMEN'S STUDIES

Indian Association for Women's Studies in collaboration with National Law University,
Delhi and Center for Women's Development Studies Organized

XVI National Conference on Women's Studies,

“Constitutional Principles in 21st Century Indian: Vision for Emancipation”

Venue: National Law University, Delhi from 28/01/2020 to 31/01/2020

Faculty Members Presented following papers:

Desouza Shaila, Mukhopadhyay P., Tapaswi Murari, ‘Women in Science: Gender Differentials in Indian Academia’.

Pednekar Sulochana, ‘Right to Education Act and Universal Access to Education in India’.

D'Mello Audrick, ‘The Moral Justifications used by Sexism in Social Media: A Philosophical Analysis’.

Ph.D Scholars

Women's Studies

Dourado Aida, ‘Can a System Like the Kudds Help Bring About More Equitable Gender Relations?’.

CLAS

Mohanan Nila , ‘ Women Negotiating Political Power at Critical Junctures: A Comparative Study of Women's Roles in Constitution Drafting in India and South Africa.

M.A. Students:

Jaiswal Amrita, ‘Social Media, A Tool for Empowering Women ‘.

D'sa Stephanie, ‘ Amidst the Digital Divide: Social Media and the Emerging Discourse on Emotional Labour from a Feminist Perspective’.

Ex-Students

Velip Suchitra, ‘Challenges Faced by Women Involved in Traditional Crafts in Goa’.

Shah As'ad, 'Lynching in India: A Rise of Ultra-Nationalism & Hyper Masculinity in the Context of the Contemporary Socio-Political Scenario'.

Participation from Goa University:

From Department of Women's Studies, 4 faculty members participated and 3 presented papers, one Ph.D scholar, two post-graduate students papers were selected one for presentation and one for abstract publication and 8 students participated and attended the pre-conference and the XVI conference.

Three ex-students participated and two of them presented papers at the conference.

From CLAS – Ph.D scholar Presented paper and attended the conference.

