

Prof. Sheshanath Bhosale on Editorial board of the journal 'Molecules' (MDPI)

Prof. Sheshanath Bhosale, UGC Professor at the School of Chemical Sciences, Goa University has now been invited to be on Editorial board of the journal 'Molecules' (MDPI) for the Colorants Section. Prof. Bhosale has a long standing relationship with the publisher (MDPI) and he has been involved with different editorial responsibilities, either for special issues or the journal itself. So this is one more feather in Prof. Bhosale's cap. Congratulations to Prof. Bhosale. According to SCIMago Journal Rank, the Journal 'Molecules' has sustained its position in Quartile 1 and 2 in most of its areas it deals with.
