

The Delegation from the French Embassy in India visits Goa University.

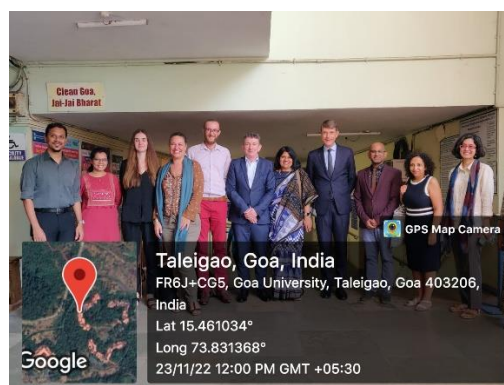

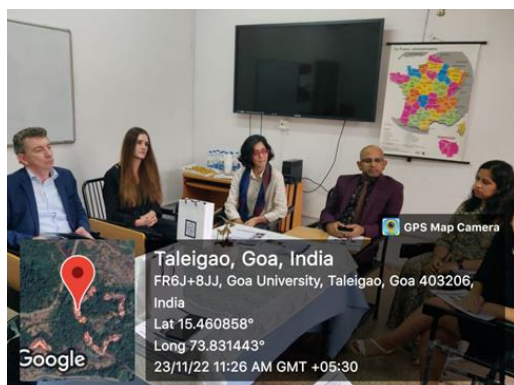

On 23rd November 2022, a delegation from the French Embassy in India headed by Mr Emmanuel Lebrun-Damiens, Counsellor for Education, Science & Culture, visited Goa University and met the Honourable Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Harilal B. Menon to discuss collaborations and opportunities for higher education in France in multiple disciplines. The delegates met the faculty from the Discipline of French and Francophone Studies and visited the Goa University library.

The delegation from the French Embassy in India with Prof. Harilal B. Menon, Honourable Vice-Chancellor of Goa University.

The delegates from the French Embassy in India visited the Goa University Library.

The delegation from the French Embassy in India visited the Discipline of French and Francophone Studies.