The objectives / description of the activity	A study tour was organized by Marathi Program in association with the Sant Sohirobanath Ambiye chair, VRPP, for students of Marathi program on 05 December 2022. The study tour was organized to introduce the students to the inspiring events of Goan history, culture, literature and to conduct research in this regard in the future. Students saluted the memorial of revolutionary Chieftains at Cuncoli. Goan history researcher Sarvesh Borkar narrated the history of Cuncoli-Goa Revolt (15 July 1583) for the students. Students visited Shri Mallikarjuna Temple which has Marathi literary tradition like TAKA, SHAMI-PATR and ZULE. There, President Vithoba Desai, former President and former Superintendent of Police Mahesh Gawkar, Mamletdar of Canacon Manoj Korgaokar narrated the information about the temple to the students. The students also visited the unique symbol of Goan culture Shri Parashuram Temple. Students visited the residence of the great Marathi writer S.S. Desai in Canacon-Goa, where he did literary and remarkable historical research work during his lifetime. His reprinted four books were published. S. S. Desai's daughter and Author Akalpita Desai Held a literary conversation with students. A writer's get-together was held. In it, Dr. Pramada Desai, interacted with the students. This educational tour was successful with the special support of VRPP Director Dr. Savita Kerkar.

Marathi Program Director Vinayak Bapat welcomed the guests; Coordinator Dr. Vinay Madgaonkar introduced the dignitaries. Faculty members, students, DDLI's Sachin Sambhaji, Nitin Patil, Sachin Patil as well as VRPP's Nandesh Naik, Shubham Naik cooperated to make this event a success. In terms of researching Goan history, literature and culture, the study tour was beneficial for the students to gather information.
