The objectives / description of the activity (50 words)

The Christmas Fest event was organized as a SGSLL collaborative activity to foster a spirit of unity in diversity through various activities that would reveal the hidden talents, creativity and skill among the students. This event was followed by a fellowship wherein students and faculty shared Christmas sweets.

- Email to Santa: [individual event open to all]
 Ho... Ho... Ho! Have you been naughty or nice?
 Write an ingenious letter to Santa with your Christmas Wishlist in English / French / Hindi / Konkani / Marathi / Portuguese
 Mail it to sgsllsanta@gmail.com by 18th December 2022.

- Patchwork Poetry Quilt: [individual event open to all]
 Do not dread if you have no needle and thread!
 To make a Patchwork poem, choose each verse from a different poem. The verses must make sense when put together, but need not rhyme. Give a title to your patchwork poem on a Christmas related theme. Entries will be accepted in English / French / Hindi / Konkani / Marathi / Portuguese
 Mail poem entry to sgsllsanta@gmail.com by 18th December 2022.

- Carol Singing: [individual/ team participation open to all]
 Do you rock the mike? Flex your vocal cords and sing a carol of your choice in any language.

- Round Robin Story: [SGSLL students team event]
 Once upon a time ... Participants will write a collaborative Christmas story.

- Yuletide Scavenger Hunt: [SGSLL students team event]
 Participants must solve clues to find the stations set up to complete all tasks within an hour. Yule just love it!

- Photo Booth:
 Isn't this how it's supposed to be? ... Making our Christmas memories ...
 Click a selfie with props provided.

- SGSLL Multilingual Christmas Play:
 Students will perform a One-Act Play, an adaptation of the Portuguese dramatic text "As filhos do Natal" by Isabel Mendonça Soares.
Event conceptualized and organized by the Portuguese & Lusophone Studies Discipline, Shenoi Goembab School of Languages & Literature.
