

GOA UNIVERSITY
SCHOOL OF SANSKRIT, PHILOSOPHY AND INDIC STUDIES

The School of Sanskrit, Philosophy and Indic Studies, Goa University organized a talk titled, "Samvaad: A Dialogue on Vedanta in everyday living." by Acharya Prashant, on 16 August 2022 from 2.30-4.30 PM at the Seminar Hall, Faculty Block B, Social Sciences Building, Goa University. Acharya Prashant is an Indian author, IIT-IIM Alumnus, Ex-Civil Servant, and an Advaita teacher. He teaches seventeen forms of Gita and sixty forms of Upanishads. He is the founder of a non-profit organization named PrashantAdvait Foundation, which aims to create a new world based on clarity and compassion. It has the vision to bring the wisdom of ancient scriptures, the words of saints, and the rigour of modern science to the help of mankind. Converging the sapience and nous from across time and space, Acharya Prashant helps us re-discover the fundamentals of living.

This talk aimed to create awareness about Vedanta and India's ancient wisdom among young students, and also to understand how Vedanta can help us in our day-to-day issues, to find out the importance of interaction in problem-solving. The talk enabled participants to see their issues through the Vedantic lens and reach a fruitful end through dialogue and conversation.

Around 120 people attended the talk, including students, faculty members, and research scholars, from Goa University and affiliated colleges as well as the general public.

Photos of the talk:

