A Fabrication Engineer by qualification from Government Polytechnic Panaji, Shekhar founded Kineco as a small-scale unit in 1995, after serving for 8 years in some of the world-class engineering and manufacturing companies in India across various disciplines of manufacturing, project management, product development and marketing. Kineco's railway division is the leader in providing modular turnkey solutions for interiors across the entire range of Indian trains such as LHB, Tejas and Train 18. Kineco's Defence and Space division has pioneered the development of many first of its kind composite products such as sonar domes for naval warships, carbon fibre modular bridges for military applications, besides contributing significantly to a range of indigenous missile programs such as Agni 4 and 5 and space launch vehicle programs such as GSLV, PSLV and Gaganyaan. Kineco's decade-old joint venture with Kaman Aerospace Group USA (NYSE listed company) has made its mark as a world-class provider of composite products and sub systems to the global aerospace markets serving its customers on Airbus and Boeing platforms besides being the largest manufacturer of composite parts for indigenous aircrafts and helicopters such as LCA and ALH manufactured by HAL. The stupendous success of Kineco Kaman, has recently landed Kineco in yet another joint venture with Exel Composite of Finland – the world's largest producer of pultruded composite products.

Shekhar has been conferred many awards such as:-
Entrepreneur of the year 2004 by Goa Management Association
Entrepreneur of the year 2004 by Rotary Club of Panjim
Udyog Patra Award for Self-made Industrialist year 2007
Entrepreneur of the year 2018 by Business Goa

Beyond his professional achievements as an entrepreneur, Shekhar has served in many non-profit roles such as:

President of Goa State Industries Association (2010 to 2015).
Chairman of CII Goa Council (2016 - 17)
Member of Goa State Pollution Control Board (2010 to 2015)
Member of Goa Investment Promotion Board (2014-2018)
Member of Goa IDC Board (2010-2019)

While in the above positions Shekhar has contributed significantly to the cause of Industrial development in Goa through policy advocacy.
