The objective/description of the activity	Objective: To pay tribute to our beloved 'Motherland' through the Panch Pran Pledge. An email informing all the students and teaching staff was sent to gather at the Faculty Block-E entrance of the Goa University. Accordingly, the students and teachers of School of Chemical Sciences assembled at 12.30 p.m. at the entrance of the building to undertake the Panch Pran Pledge. Dr. Anjani Nagvenkar who was the in-charge of this activity instructed the faculty members and students about the steps of conducting the activity. The pledge was given to all by Dr. Prachi Torney and Dr. Pranay Morajkar. All the participants enthusiastically recited the Panch Pran pledge by picking a little soil in hand. The first promise was about contributing to make India a developed nation, the second pledge was to realize the importance of freedom and liberate ourselves from the slavery mind set. The third promise was to be proud of our glorious rich heritage and legacy, while the fourth pledge is to maintain and strengthen unity and solitarity to make "Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat" and respect human values. The final pledge was to become responsible citizens and realize our duties towards the nation. The Dean, SCS addressed all the participants apprising the significance of this pledge and the responsibilities of every citizen towards nation. The pledge ceremony ended at 10:15 a.m. Some of the participants, separately took the selfies with the soil in hand and once again recited the Panch Pran Pledge.
Benefit/Key outcome of the event	The Pledge instilled in students, a feeling of patriotism and affection towards our motherland. All the participants a sense of authority towards their duties and their role as a responsible citizen which can contribute to making India a developed nation in all respect.
