11. The objective/ description of the activity	The objective of the project orientation was to introduce to the TYBA students the concept of research and to initiate the process of the project. The students were asked about the topics they have thought of, the way they could carry out the research on the topic chosen and what is required of them to complete the project. They were informed of the format and chapterization of the project report. The students were explained the concept of plagiarism, how to avoid plagiarism, referencing, citations and the format of the bibliography. The project evaluation criteria were explained along with other procedural guidelines. The students were given a tentative timeline beginning with the submission of registration forms to the submission of the project reports.
12. Benefit/ key outcome of the activity	The students gained clarity with the topics they had chosen and the approach required of them. They were equipped with the knowledge regarding plagiarism and MLA style referencing and bibliography required for a language project. With the information regarding the grading and evaluation, the students were well informed of the different aspects of a project.
