9. Description of the event	The Directorate of Student Placement and Alumni Relations (DSPAR) of Goa University organised Alumni Meet on Saturday, 23rd December 2023 at the university campus. The meet was attended by over 135 participants. Prof. Ravi Fernandes, Director and Head of Physical Chemistry Department, PTB, Germany and one of the illustrious alumni of the Goa University was the chief guest at the event that was held in the gracious presence of Prof. Bernard Rodrigues, officiating Vice-Chancellor of the university and Prof. Ramesh Pai, officiating Registrar. Dr. Rupesh Patre, Director, DSPAR, welcomed the gathering and explained the purpose of the meet. In his welcome address to the alumni, Prof. Ramesh Pai expressed his happiness over the enthusiastic participation of the alumni and highlighted the significant changes that have taken place at the University in terms of academic organization, infrastructure and activities over a period of time. Prof. Rodrigues, officiating vice-chancellor, apprised the gathering about the remarkable role played by the University in shaping the educational scenario in the state of Goa, and its research contribution across disciplines while accentuating the attention of the audience on the future role and plans of the University and how alumni can contribute in the same. Prof. Harilal B. Menon, Vice-chancellor of the University who was unable to attend the programme in person due to prior commitments, addressed the gathering through his recorded message that emphasized on developments at the University and importance of the alumni to the University in accomplishing its goals.

The chief guest on the occasion, Prof. Ravi Fernandes delivered a highly motivating address with his call to the alumni to support the University. Citing a biblical quote freely you have received, freely give, Prof. Fernandes emphasized that alumni constitute the fourth pillar of any university and should come forward to freely contribute to the development of their alma mater. Highlighting the progress made by the notable national and international higher education institutions with support from their alumni, Prof. Fernandes said that it is time for the Goa University alumni to tread a similar path and be the change agents for Goa University. He exemplified the numerous ways, monetary and non-monetary, through which alumni can impact the academic and research environment at the University thereby positively impacting the lives of the University students. He also appreciated the contribution of Goa University students at national and international level in varied domains and capacity. Dr. Arvind Haldankar, Secretary, Goa University Alumni Association concluded the inaugural session with vote of thanks.

The formal inaugural of the meet was followed by a panel discussion that hosted notable alumni of the University as panelists to invite suggestions on the manner in which Goa University alumni can contribute to the progress of the institution. Developing an alumni portal and database, maintaining regular interaction with the alumni, suitable projection and appreciation of the success of alumni, launching courses and coaching for alumni, providing mentoring services to the students and raising funds with defined purposes were some of the suggestions received

	during the panel discussion. Shri. Anish Albuquerque, CEO, Imperial Wealth Services moderated the panel discussion with Shri. Rudresh Kunde, Vice-President, National Stock Exchange, Shri. Milind Anvekar, Sr. Vice-President, Open Destinations, Dr. Mangal Phadte, Group Leader, Syngenta Bioscience and Dr. M. Shanti, HoD, Dept. of English, DM's College, Assagao as the alumni panelists. The discussion also witnessed participation and suggestions from the alumni present in the audience. The event further involved cultural performances with Shri Nagesh Maharudra Bhajani Mandal, Curca presenting the Goan folk dances and the alumni attendees exhibiting their talent in singing and dance besides sharing their nostalgia and personal experiences. The cultural programme was anchored by Asst. Prof. Kripali Naik, Shenoi Goembab School of Languages and Literature. The event concluded with a vote of thanks by Dr. Pinky Pawaskar and Dr. Narayan Parab.
