Report on
Two-Day National Symposium on the Life and Works of Dr. Manohar Rai Sardessai

In commemoration of the Birth Centennial year of Dr. Manohar Rai Sardessai, a two-day national symposium titled 'Life and Works of Dr. Manohar Rai Sardessai' took place on 13 and 14 March 2024 at Goa University.

The symposium aimed to critically discuss the genius of Dr. Sardessai's works and celebrate his contribution to Goan society. With 30 faculty members, 124 students and 17 external guests, a total of 171 participants registered for the event, including Dr. Manohar Rai Sardessai's family members and well-wishers.

The symposium commenced with an inaugural ceremony on 13 March 2024, graced by the presence of Honorable Vice Chancellor of Goa University, Senior Prof. Harilal B. Menon. The Chief Guest, Prof. Vijayalakshmi Rao, delivered a compelling address highlighting Dr. Manohar Rai Sardessai's significant contributions to French literature in India. The Keynote speaker, Mr. Shailendra Mehta, Dean of Shenoi Goembab School of Languages and Literature, and the Symposium's Convenor, Prof. Anuradha Wagle, were present on the dais, alongside the Co-Convenors, Dr. Hanumant Chopdekar and Mr. Anthony Gomes.

Following the inaugural session, Mr. Shailendra Mehta delivered the Keynote Address, elucidating key lessons gleaned from Dr. Sardessai's life experiences.

The first symposium session, 'Dr. Manohar Rai Sardessai and French', featured paper presentations by Dr. Edith Noronha Melo Furtado and Prof. Anuradha Wagle, chaired by Dr. Frederick Noronha.

Subsequently, 'Mogachi Yaad', a session dedicated to verbal homage to the poet, featured panelists Ms. Maya Sardessai, Dr. Shakuntala Bharne, and Mrs. Sarojini Antao e Sousa. They spoke about their association with Dr. Sardessai in various capacities and highlighted their key learnings from him as a father, poet, professor, and a man.

A Roundtable Discussion followed, chaired by Mr. Sandesh Prabhudesai. Panelists Mr. Abhay Sardesai, Prof. Shashikant Sardesai, and Fr. Joaquim Loiola Pereira engaged in discourse on 'Dr. Manohar Rai Sardessai: Echoes of Wisdom'. This event featured a melange of Dr. Sardessai's wisdom reflected through their professional, personal, and social interactions with Dr. Sardessai. The panelists narrated personal anecdotes featuring Dr. Sardessai to support their views and opinions.

The first day concluded with a screening of a documentary on Dr. Manohar Rai Sardessai, directed by Mr. Sudesh S. Lotlikar, sourced from the Archives of Sahitya Akademi.

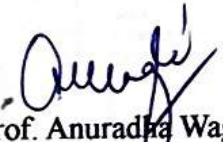

The second day commenced with a session titled 'Dr. Manohar Rai Sardessai and Konkani', featuring presentations in Konkani by Mr. Umesh Sardessai, Dr. Purnanand Chari, and Mr. Gorak Sirsat, chaired by Mr. Vasant Bhagwant Sawant.

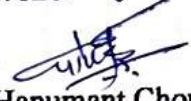

A multilingual poetry recitation/reading session ensued, with teachers from various disciplines of Shenoj Goembab School of Languages and Literature, along with guests, reading Dr. Sardessai's poems in Konkani, French, Marathi, Portuguese, English, and Hindi.

This was followed by the 'Poetry Visualization' contest, where Goa University students portrayed Dr. Sardessai's poems through various artistic mediums. Ms. Alpha Ramteke secured the first place, with Ms. Rosell D'Souza and Ms. Vrutha Karmali winning second and third place respectively. The event was judged by Mrs. Preeta Sardessai, Mr. Abhay Sardesai, and Ms. Shusha Oliveira.

The Valedictory function, attended by Adv. Uday Bhembre as Chief Guest, featured reflections on Dr. Sardessai's life and personality. Prof. Anuradha Wagle, Dean and Convenor of the symposium, along with Co-Convenors Dr. Hanumant Chopdekar and Mr. Anthony Gomes, were also present.

The national two-day symposium culminated with a concert titled 'Manohar Geetam', showcasing songs

PAPER PRESENTATION - DR. MANOHAR RAI SARDESSAI AND FRENCH

Dr. Frederik Noronha Session Chair
Frederik Noronha has been a journalist since the age of 18, and a publisher of books related to Goa that has occurred over half his small and abundant publishing career. Goa 5558 has created 150+ titles, mostly non-fiction books on the region. He was inspired by Prof. Sardesai, as a student in the team leading Goa University in the mid-1980s. Among the books he later published in Goa (in 2022) was the anthology of Goa writing, edited by Prof. Pinar, featuring outstanding speeches of Dr. Sardesai's fine writing. Noronha's PhD, done at the renowned Goa University Department of English (2022), focussed on publishing in 19th century Goa.

Dr. Edith Noronha Melo Furtado
Edith Noronha Melo Furtado was an Assoc. Prof. at the Department of French and Francophone Studies, Goa University. She holds a PhD in Francophone Studies from the University of Quebec, Canada. She is currently researching Goa's literary and cultural history and is actively participating in the 'Thinking Goa' (Pensando Goa) initiative. Furtado's publications include a bilingual work on 'The Works of Manohar Rai Sardesai: A Meeting Point between India and France'. She has contributed to notable works like 'Dissidence: A Journey of Discovery' (2019) and 'A House of Many Mansions: Goa Literature and Postcoloniality' (2022). She is currently a member of the Goa Writers Group and has contributed to anthologies such as 'Wings of Bilingualism: Journeys from Goa' (Goa Writers, 2024). In 2020, she was honored by the Republic of France with the title of Chevalier dans l'Ordre des Palmes Académiques for promoting French Language and Culture in Goa.

Prof. (Dr.) Anuradha Wagle
Anuradha Wagle is currently Dean of Goa University's Sheroi Goembab School of Languages and Literature. Before joining SOSL as a PhD in Translation Studies from Jawahar Institute of Postgraduate Studies, she worked at SOSL for over 30 years of teaching experience. She has taught at SOSL's Postgraduate and Goa University. As a keen translator, she translated Konkani into French. She has published various research papers on National and International context from Goa and has been a part of various forums in India and abroad. She has also contributed to the publication of the anthology book 'My Goa: My Goa: My Goa' (2020). Having been awarded the Chevalier de l'Ordre des Palmes Académiques and the Chevalier de l'Ordre des Palmes Académiques by the French Government, she has also been named as President of the Indian Association of Teachers of French and has been President of the Asia Pacific Centre and the Vice-President of the Indo-Portuguese International Federation of French Teachers. She has recently, in August 2022, taken over as President of the Alliance Française de Panaji in Goa.

INVITEES

Prof. Vijnayakshmi Rao Chief Guest, Inaugural
Vijnayakshmi Rao is Professor at the Centre for French & Francophone Studies, Jawahar Institute University, New Delhi, since 1990. Her teaching and research focus on Quebec Literature, Reappropriation of India in French & Francophone Literature, and Literature of the Indian Ocean. Some of her edited and co-edited volumes are Reaching the Ocean Through Francophone Travel Writing on India of the 17th & 18th Centuries (2012), Displacement and Citizenship: Histories and Identities (2021), Creative contemporary Québec (2022). In February 2023, she was conferred the Médaille du 50e anniversaire du Ministère des Affaires étrangères (International) de la Francophonie of the Government of Quebec for her contribution to the development of Quebec Studies.
Prof. Rao has been a professor and advisor at a decade before publishing her book Empressor Parashurama (2008), an anthology of Indian Writing in French. During this period, she met Dr. Manohar Rai Sardesai a number of times and included his poems and short stories in the anthology. She has authored several articles on Indian Writing in French.

Adv. Laxay Laxmikant Bhembe Chief Guest, Valedictory
Laxay Laxmikant Bhembe is a prominent Indian lawyer, celebrated Konkani writer, and former member of the Goa, Daman, and Diu Legislative Assembly. Renowned for his pivotal role as the editor of the Konkani daily, Santapani, and as a fervent Konkani language activist, Advocate Bhembe's contributions have left an indelible mark on the cultural landscape.
His association with Dr. Manohar Rai Sardesai dates back to 1958, during their time in Mumbai. At Wilson College, where Dr. Sardesai served as a professor and Adv. Bhembe was a student, their paths intertwined. Dr. Sardesai's eloquence as a popular orator often saw him inaugurating Konkani Mandals in colleges from 1950 to 1960, further bolstering their connection.
Following their association, their collaboration continued in Goa, despite belonging to different generations. Together, they contributed to the Konkani Shiksha Mandal, Goa Konkani Academy, and the Konkani Advisory Board of Sahitya Akademi. For Adv. Bhembe, Dr. Manohar Rai Sardesai's life and work serve as a perpetual wellspring of inspiration, influencing his literary and oratorical endeavors, but also those that have followed in their footsteps.
