Efforts to include vocational education and training in the University system	Goa College Of Hospitality & Culinary Education <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. The Cuisine Clutch was a meticulously crafted event was organized by students of GCHCE at the Grand Sala, Taj, Cidade de Goa on 10th October, 2023. This event brought to life the creative ingenuity of our 3rd-year BBA students at GCHCE. This splendid evening saw the attendance of 55 esteemed guests who had thoughtfully acquired tickets for the occasion. Additionally, we were honored to host 25 distinguished invitees, including Mrs. Anju Timblo and her esteemed guests, Mrs. Neeta Brid, and other respected invitees from the Fomento Group, as well as our gracious sponsors and several esteemed representatives from the management of Taj, Cidade de Goa. The highlight of the event was undoubtedly the delectable buffet spread, a testament to the culinary prowess of our students, who flawlessly prepared and impeccably served a delightful array of dishes. The second year students of GCHCE are undergoing for a 6 months internship from October 2023 in various five star hotels in Goa. This is a commendable effort to integrate vocational education and training into the university system. This initiative ensures practical, hands-on experience for students, bridging the gap between academia and industry. The students gain invaluable real-world skills, industry exposure, and a competitive edge in their careers, aligning with the broader goal of enhancing employability and fostering a seamless transition from education to the professional realm. The students of Goa College of Hospitality and Culinary education have participated in various banqueting events hosted by Taj, Cidade de Goa during October to December, 2023. Participating in outdoor catering and banqueting services organized by 5-star hotels offers numerous advantages to students pursuing hospitality and hotel management programs. These experiences provide invaluable hands-on training, allowing students to develop essential skills in food preparation, customer service, event coordination, and problem-solving. Working within the high standards of 5-star hotels exposes students to industry best practices, and they gain insights into guest expectations and preferences. Moreover, students learn teamwork, leadership, adaptability, and time management skills while also building a professional network. This practical experience enhances their resumes, boosts confidence, and opens doors to future job opportunities in the dynamic field of hospitality. V.M.
