Bio Data

Parwati Dutta is an esteemed Indian classical dancer, choreographer, and educator, specializing in Kathak and Odissi dance forms. As the director of Mahagami Gurukul in Aurangabad, she has played a pivotal role in the preservation and dissemination of traditional Indian dance. With a career spanning several decades, she has garnered acclaim for her innovative approach that blends classical techniques with contemporary sensibilities, making the art form accessible and engaging for modern audiences.

Dutta's journey in dance began at a young age, and she trained under some of the most respected gurus in the field. Her performances are characterized by technical precision, expressive storytelling, and a deep understanding of the cultural and historical contexts of the dances she performs. She has received numerous awards and accolades for her contributions to the arts, including national and international recognition.

At Mahagami Gurukul, she mentors a new generation of dancers, offering them rigorous training and opportunities to perform. Her workshops and immersive programs are highly sought after, providing participants with comprehensive training, personalized feedback, and insights into the rich traditions of Indian classical dance. Through her work as a performer, teacher, and choreographer, Parwati Dutta continues to inspire and elevate the world of classical dance.
