10. The objectives of the Program/activity/event	The objectives of National Policy Hackathon 2025 were as follows: 1.To provide a platform to young academic minds from national and local institutions of higher education to produce and share innovative intellectual inputs powered by data-driven and time-bound solutions on the crucial public policy theme - Sustainable Hinterland Tourism in Goa: Avenues and Liabilities

	2. To obtain critical and practical policy solutions to the issue of sustainable hinterland tourism in Goa 3. To constructively utilize the innovative ideas garnered at the course of this competition to benefit key stakeholders associated with sustainable hinterland tourism in Goa 4. To harness the intellect and innovative ideas of young academic minds in formulating policy documents on sustainable hinterland tourism in Goa in alignment with the Sustainable Development Goals.
11. Description of the Program/activity/event	Policy Hackathon 2025 revolved around formulating policy documents (nomenclature used in the competition is policy briefs) on the theme Sustainable Hinterland Tourism in Goa: Avenues and Liabilities. The purpose of encouraging young minds to formulate policy briefs on sustainable hinterland tourism in Goa was to obtain innovative and intellectual inputs on developing and promoting sustainable hinterland tourism in Goa. The forementioned theme holds unique significance for a coastal state such as Goa which is not only blessed with a pristine coast but also enjoys the lush greens and crystal-clear waters in the hinterland. Post the critical scrutiny of policy briefs submitted by undergraduate students from national and local institutions, 10 teams were shortlisted and 7 best teams competed in the on-stage finals at Goa University. The shortlisted teams made presentations of policy briefs which they had formulated. The following are various positions secured at Policy Hackathon 2025: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. Winners: Christ (Deemed to be University), Pune, Lavasa Campus.</li> <li>2. Runners up: St. Xavier's College of Arts, Science and Commerce, Mapusa-Goa</li> <li>3. Best Policy brief: Christ (Deemed to be University), Lavasa Campus, Pune.</li> <li>4. Best Speaker (Male): Noorunihad P.K., Govt. Law College, Kozhikode</li> <li>5. Best Speaker (Female): Anusha Anil Dhulappanavar, Christ (Deemed to be University), Lavasa Campus, Pune.</li> </ol>
12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	<ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1. National Policy Hackathon 2025 obtained lucid written policy briefs and oral presentations on the avenues and liabilities of Sustainable Hinterland Tourism in Goa</li> <li>2. Participants highlighted the responsibilities corroborating with the promotion of Goa as a hinterland tourism destination which</li> </ol>

	include promotion of environmental conservation, enhancing cultural preservation, empowering local communities and encouraging affordable and attractive hinterland accommodation 2. Students enunciated predictable liabilities coupled with hinterland tourism in Goa encompassing carrying capacity, socio-cultural disruptions, resource misuse and infrastructure deficiency in hinterland areas 3. Participants identified various stakeholders with whom complementary partnerships ought to be sustained to consolidate sustainable hinterland tourism in Goa. These stakeholders encompass existing and anticipated government bodies, local communities and culture groups, environmental and conservation organizations and domestic and international tourists and travellers. 4. Students elucidated several measures to boost hinterland tourism in Goa such as focus on the lesser explored hinterland gems of the state, promotion of eco-tourism, nature-tourism and agri-tourism, community involvement in sustainable hinterland tourism, incorporating sustainable building materials and harnessing renewable sources of energy to fuel tourism in hinterland areas.
