10. The objectives of the Program/activity/event	The primary objectives of the event were to: 1) create awareness regarding language vitality and parameters of endangerment by UNESCO. 2) foster a need to preserve and promote regional languages and protect India's linguistic diversity.

11. Description of the Program/activity/event	Renowned linguist Prof. Anvita Abbi delivered a thought-provoking lecture on “Endangered Languages of India: An Assessment by UNESCO” at DCT’s Dhempe College of Arts and Science on 22nd January 2025. The lecture was held as part of the Visiting Research Professors Programme under B.B. Borkar Chair Professor in Comparative Literature. The talk was jointly facilitated by the Departments of English and Indian Languages of Dhempe College. Prof. Abbi shed light on the various parameters used to measure language endangerment, underscoring the need for concerted efforts to preserve linguistic diversity. Her insights on the role of ‘language vitality’, the role of ‘contact languages’ in multilingual India and a focused emphasis on the ‘attitude’ of speakers in keeping a language functional engendered fruitful interactions with the student community and general public attending the lecture. The Director of VRPP, Dr. Prakash Parienkar, Principal of Dhempe College, Prof. P.S. Ramu Murthy, Dean of the Shenoji Goembab School of Languages and Literature, Prof. Anuradha Wagle, Vice-Principal of Dhempe College, Dr. Swati Pawar, Head of the Department of Indian Languages, Dr. Vaishali Naik and

13. Enclosures with report	Photos, Attendance of participants, Bio Data of resource person.

Bio Data

Prof. Anvita Abbi

A Ph. D. from Cornell University, N.Y., USA, Anvita Abbi is a rigorous researcher, a highly respected teacher and guide, a successful administrator, and a distinguished academic from Jawaharlal Nehru University where she taught for four decades. Maintaining the noblest traditions of academia, she combines her scholarship with effortless humility and kindness. She is undoubtedly one of the world's most distinguished researchers on minority languages. In the case of the vast Indian sub-continent, she may be the only one who has conducted first-hand field research on all the six families of languages spoken here. She identified a new language family of India, i.e., the Great Andamanese. Her research was corroborated by population genetics. The Government of India recognized her pioneering work in the form of bestowing upon her the Padma Shri in 2013. Her Manual of Linguistic Fieldwork and the Structures of Indian Languages (Lincom Europa, Germany, 2001) is a prominent reference book consulted the world over by linguists working on the languages of South Asia. She was awarded one of the most prestigious linguistics awards by the Linguistic Society of America USA the Kenneth Hale Award (2015) for her outstanding lifetime contributions to the documentation and description of languages of India, with a particular note of her extraordinary contributions to the documentation of the Great Andamanese language, a moribund language that is a key isolate in understanding the peopling of Asia and Oceania.

It is because of her undeniable stature in the field that she has been invited as a Visiting professor and researcher at prestigious institutes in the USA, Germany, UK, Canada, and Australia. She has immense experience in field linguistics, language documentation, and analysis of ethno-linguistic aspects of language use. Her wide experience of working on tribal languages of Jharkhand, Northeast, and Andaman and Nicobar makes her a truly rare linguist. Her experience of working with minorities and tribals has motivated her to write extensively on language and education policy. She served as the UNESCO expert on language issues. At present, she serves on the Expert Committee of the UNESCO World Atlas of Languages and is an Adjunct Professor at Simon Fraser University, Vancouver, Canada in addition to holding the B. B. Borkar Chair for Comparative Literature in Goa University.
