Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	<ul> <li>By the end of this series of lectures, students were able to <ul> <li>understand the history, development, and global significance of the Fado, along with its key elements</li> <li>perform one Fado in its distinct style</li> <li>demonstrate proper pronunciation, style, interpretation, and comprehension of the lyrics.</li> </ul> </li> </ul>
13. Enclosures with report	Photos, Attendance of participants, Bio Data of resource person.

Bio Data

Sonia Shirsat is an acclaimed Fado singer from Goa, often referred to as India's foremost Fadista. Born in Ponda, Goa, she has become a prominent figure in the Fado music genre, which is a traditional form of Portuguese music. Sonia holds degrees in law from VM Salgaocar College of Law and has taught law for four years. Despite her legal background, her passion for music, particularly Fado, led her to pursue a career in singing.

Her journey into Fado began when she met the Portuguese guitarist Antonio Chainho, who recognized her potential and encouraged her to learn and perform Fado. This meeting was a turning point, and Sonia subsequently trained in Portugal, gaining valuable experience performing in Fado houses and concerts.

Sonia has performed Fado in 14 languages and is known for her efforts to popularize this genre in India. She has taught Fado to over 300 students through her project "Fado de Goa," initiated in collaboration with the Taj Hotels. Sonia's contributions have significantly raised the profile of Fado in Goa and beyond, making her a pivotal figure in the preservation and promotion of this music form.
