11. Description of the Program/activity/event	The Indian Association of Teachers of French (IATF) and the Institut Français en Inde (IFI) , in collaboration with the Discipline of French and Francophone Studies, Goa University , organized the zonal round of Idole Indienne 2025 on 19 th September 2025. This event formed part of a national initiative designed to celebrate and promote the teaching and learning of French in India. Endorsed by the IATF's national committee, the activity highlighted the dynamic partnership between national associations and academic institutions. The primary objective of the event was to create a platform for French language learners to showcase their singing skills and creative talent. By participating in this prestigious competition, students not only engaged with the French language in an authentic and competitive setting but also gained valuable exposure to Francophone culture and its global relevance. The competition saw participation from 6 contestants from various schools across Goa. The two winners of the Goa city round will participate in the zonal round to be held in Pune in the month of November 2025.

12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	The outcomes of the Goa city round were significant: participants demonstrated commendable levels of proficiency and creativity, and the event generated enthusiasm for the subsequent zonal and national stages of Idole Indienne 2025 . Furthermore, the collaboration reinforced the importance of partnerships between professional associations and universities in advancing foreign language education in India.
