10. The objectives of the Program/activity/event	The general objective of celebrating the European Day of Languages is to highlight Europe's rich linguistic and cultural diversity, which has to be encouraged and maintained amongst students and faculty members in today's global era. It acts as an opportunity to celebrate all of Europe's languages, and to expand the range of languages that people learn throughout their lives in order to develop their plurilingual skills and reinforce intercultural understanding.

11. Description of the Program/activity/event	The event began with a quiz prepared by Ms. Shourya Sinai Kavlekar and conducted by Ms. Kshama Dharwadkar. This was followed by the screening of the reels that were part of the reel-making competition. Ms. Tanushree Rai and Mr. Jude Fernandes were awarded the first and second place, respectively, at the reel-making competition. At the end of the event, there was a musical performance by the Tuna Académica da Universidade de Goa, the University students' musical group, that sang a Portuguese fado. The event was coordinated by Mr. Franz Schubert Cotta, Ms. Kshama Dharwadkar and Ms. Shourya Sinai Kavlekar.
12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	The event showcased multimedia skills of the students through the reel-making competition. The quiz which comprised of questions on cultural elements provided new and additional information on various cultures around the world and Goa. The musical performance by the students was very inspiring, reinforcing the idea that language is truly about communication.
