10. The objectives of the Program/activity/event	Savitribai Phule's life and work continue to inspire generations in the struggle against caste, gender, and social inequalities. Her relentless efforts towards women's education and empowerment are of great relevance even today. Observing her birth anniversary through an academic and reflective event will honour her legacy and help students and faculty engage with contemporary issues related to gender justice and social reform.
11. Description of the Program/activity/event	The Programme was coordinated by Vithai Zaraunker and Dr Sulochana Pednekar. Ms. Naman Sawant Dawaskar served as chief guest speaker for the event. She stressed upon the life and work journey of Savitribai Phule in today, connecting with reality. The struggle of Savitribai Phule serves as a great example to bring changes in our system, life to make our society and systems egalitarian. Aniket Bagayat from women's Studies Programme compered the event. The guest speaker was introduced by Professor Shaila Desousa , Welcome speech to the event was given by Dr Sulochana Pednekar and the vote of thanks was proposed by Vithai Zaraunker.
12. Benefit/Key outcomes of the Program/activity/event	The lecture enabled students and faculty to critically reflect on the continuing intersections of caste, gender, and social inequality in contemporary society. Through the experiences of the resource person, participants understood how Savitribai Phule's ideals are translated into present-day community work and social transformation.
