|----|--|---|
| 9. | Description of the Event/Activity/Program | The workshop commenced with a warm welcome to the distinguished guests by Durva Mhamal, MSc(I) student followed by a welcome address by Sr. Prof Purva Hegde Desai, Dean, Goa Business School and Dr. Arvind N. Haldankar, Chairman, Career Counselling Cell of Directorate of Student Placement and Alumni Relations This workshop on AI Driven Career Readiness Skills was interactively started by resource persons Mr. Abhijit Bhide and Mr. Karthik Srinivasan. A key theme discussed during the sessions was the purpose of the computing revolution, with special emphasis on the role of semiconductors as the backbone of modern computing and technological advancement. Students were encouraged to understand how foundational technologies drive innovation across industries. Strong emphasis was placed on critical thinking as a core skill for students. The speakers introduced the ABCDEF framework, highlighting how Assumptions, Bias, and Correlation can influence Decision-making and problem interpretation. Through engaging examples, including the “Hero–Splendor” case, students were guided on how flawed assumptions can lead to incorrect conclusions. Mr. Karthik Srinivasan elaborated on the effective use of four essential skills, particularly focusing on how Artificial Intelligence can be leveraged as a tool rather than a shortcut. He also explained the importance of understanding input–output relationships while solving problems, enabling students to structure solutions logically and systematically. Mr. Abhijit Bhide emphasized the importance of articulation and inquisitiveness, encouraging students to ask the right questions, communicate ideas clearly, and remain curious learners. These skills were linked directly to improved problem-solving ability and professional growth. The sessions consistently tied back to concepts discussed in previous interactions, helping students see continuity in learning. Techniques for leveraging existing knowledge, tools, and frameworks were demonstrated to show how small improvements can lead to significant outcomes. Overall, the sessions reinforced that critical thinking, problem-solving, inquisitiveness, and structured use of AI are indispensable skills for students preparing for industry and future technological challenges. |
|----|--|---|

|-----|--|--|
| | | The workshop concluded with training on effective time management and how effectively we can utilize our time to do the task in mind. Some industry accepted methods for time management were highlighted, some of them are: Pareto Principle (80/20 Rule), Pomodoro Technique, Time Blocking, Urgent v/s Important (Eisenhower Matrix), Eat that frog, Relative Prioritization, 1-3-5 Rule, 2-Minute Rule, etc. In conclusion, Shri. Ramrao Wagh, Vice Dean (Academics), Goa Business School presented a token of appreciation to the guests followed by a vote of thanks. Overall, this workshop was fruitful to both students as well as faculty members who attended it. |
| 10. | Benefits or Outcomes of the Program Conducted | The key benefits were: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> Students gained understanding of types of interviews, interview facing skills, hands on sessions on how to answer interviews, researching about a company before appearing for an interview in that company, etc. Students gained understanding on various categories of career, managing career, time management, financial management, etc. Overall students gained knowledge about corporate and corporate skills which can help them to prepare for their interviews and corporate readiness. |
