11. Description of the Event	A cleanliness drive titled Clean, Green, Serene was conducted in collaboration with the Marcaim Village Panchayat at the Navadurga Temple campus following the Jatrostav festival. The activity was organized as part of Rural Camp 2025 to promote environmental responsibility, community participation, and awareness regarding sustainable waste management practices. Students of the MSW programme actively participated alongside local community members and Panchayat representatives, including the Sarpanch, Deputy Sarpanch, and other village leaders. The collective participation demonstrated strong community solidarity and highlighted the importance of collaborative action in maintaining public spaces. The drive focused on collecting and segregating waste generated during the festival, thereby contributing to cleaner surroundings and reduced environmental pollution. The initiative also aligned with broader state-level cleanliness campaigns and reinforced the importance of maintaining hygiene and sanitation in public and religious spaces. Through this hands-on activity, students gained practical exposure to community mobilization, environmental stewardship, and participatory civic action.
