

Ms. Veda Kansar, Miss Voguestar India Season 4

Ms. Veda Kansar, currently pursuing her Master of Arts in History at the DD Kosambi School of Social Sciences and Behavioral Studies, Goa University, has brought honour to the University by winning the prestigious Miss Voguestar India Season 4 title at Jaipur, Rajasthan.

The national pageant was a 3 day event in Jaipur, bringing together representatives from across India. It was conducted in five rounds – Personal Interview, Talent, Ramp Walk, Introduction and Q&A. Representing the state of Goa, Ms. Kansar distinguished herself in every round through her confidence, eloquence, grace, and strong stage presence, ultimately securing the crown.

Hailing from Ponda, Goa, her achievement marks a proud moment for both the University and the state. Her success reflects dedication, perseverance, and the spirit of holistic development encouraged at Goa University.

As the newly crowned Miss Voguestar India Season 4, she will undertake professional engagements while continuing her academic pursuits, inspiring fellow students to excel beyond academics.

