Detailed Report on activity conducted by Gender Champions

A guest lecture on " Atrocities against women: awareness and Prevention" was organized by the Directorate of Equal Opportunity for all students and faculty members of Goa University. The lecture took place in physical mode on 20.02.2026 from 1100 to 1200 hours. The resource person, Adv. Malisa Simoes, distinguished legal practitioner and advocate based in Goa, known for her commitment to legal awareness, social justice, and community advocacy, delivered the lecture in English.

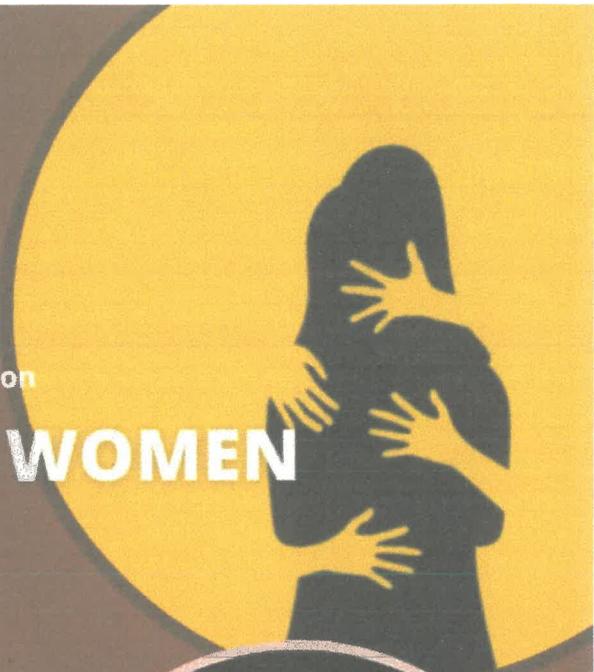

The lecture was highly engaging and effective, imparting knowledge on harassment of women, normalized sexist comments by other gender and its impact on daily life. Faculty members developed clearer awareness of their roles in prevention, reporting, and ensuring compliance with gender-sensitization policies. Participants also gained practical skills to manage their emotions and relationship. The session fostered greater sensitivity toward issues of harassment and encouraged proactive, preventive approaches within programs. A total of 20 participants attended the lecture.
