Title of the Course: Contemporary France- Issues and debates

Number of Credits: 4

Effective from AY: 2018-2019

Prerequisites for the course:	Any student pursuing Third year undergraduate programme in French at Goa University is eligible to take the course as an elective paper.
Objective:	This course is intended to investigate current issues and debates taking place in France today, and to examine the way these issues are presented in the French and international media. The notions of French cultural identity and national citizenship will be looked at, as well as France's relations with its European neighbours and with the rest of the world. To provide essential references in support of the discussions, the course will bring in background information on various aspects of France, its government and its political, social, demographic environment. At the same time the course will relate these facts to significant moments of the country's recent history, such as the post-war period of recovery, the decolonization process, the construction of the Francophone community, the European Union project, students' and workers' upheavals, and the current debates related to immigration and integration.
